This package is an original design by toopdbq@gmail.com.

Only while you're in Shibuya, today's prompt can lead to a new friend.

Your feed only shows posts from people hanging out in Shibuya today.

You can only post while you're in Shibuya.

Every day, there's a new prompt. Take a photo and post it.

A like can start a conversation with someone you've never met.

Someone who shares your interests. Someone to grab a drink with on the way home.

It's not a dating app. But you might still meet someone unexpected.

A social app that gives you a reason to connect with people you'd never cross paths with otherwise.
